

INFORMATION ABOUT VISA APPLICATION FOR JOURNALIST

A journalist visa is issued to foreign journalists/reporters who indeed to enter Indonesia for media coverage or documentary film purposes. This visa could be obtained through these following procedures at the Indonesian Embassy or consulate office at the country where the applicant resides, or, at the nearest country if none:

Visa requirements:

1. Applicant should fill the visa application form provided at the Embassy/representative office and submit:
  - His/her original passport (valid more than 6 months at time of request)
  - 2 (two) recent color passport size photographs
  - Sponsors letter from his/her News Agency/Editor stating the purpose of travel to Indonesia, places to be visited/covered, and the date/schedule of coverage
  - List of equipments (if any) brought by the applicant to Indonesia. Please state the name, detailed qualification and amount of item and state that you will re-export all the equipment upon the completion of making coverage when living Indonesia
  - Synopsis or background information of the story/documentation to be made in Indonesia
2. Applicant(s) will be further informed by the Embassy/representative office regarding the date and time to collect his/her visa, as well as any other requirements upon entry to Indonesia.
3. A single entry Journalistic Visa stay will be issued for up to 60 (sixty) days, please contact the visa section for details.
4. Payment of the visa administration fees does not guarantee that the application will be successful.